Middle School Summer Reading
Entering Grade 6

Hatchet Activity Description

- Read Hatchet by Gary Paulson and create a personal journal or diary with ten entries.

Directions

1. Imagine you are Brian Robeson. After reading a chapter, make a journal or diary entry. Each entry should be from a different chapter, three to five sentences long, include a description or an event you think is important to him as well as what he thinks about the topic.
2. The entries should be written in the first person; “I think I made a huge mistake by...”
3. Six of the ten entries should have a hand drawn colored illustration that fills approximately one-half of the page along with a caption.
4. You may type the entries if you wish using Times New Roman size 12 font and black ink, or it may be handwritten as long as it is legible.
5. A cover page is required including the title of the book, the author’s name, your name, and an illustration you think is fitting for this novel. It should include color.

Sample Entry from chapter 1:

Today I did something I never imagined in my wildest dreams I would do. I actually flew a bush plane called a Cessna! All of my problems, my parents’ divorce and the “secret”, seemed to fade away as I stared at all the trees and lakes far below. Now I have a much bigger problem; I think my pilot may be dead!

Some Helpful Hints

- Use plain copy or construction paper.
- If you handwrite the entries, cursive is not required. Draw lines with a ruler to help keep your project neat and tidy.
- Use colored pencils or crayons when coloring your illustrations and cover. Markers will bleed through to the next page.
- Report jackets or plastic covers are not required. Simply staple the pages together in the upper left hand corner.
- Refer to the rubric often and please follow the directions.
