- Newspaper Reporter- Pretend you are a writer for The Westfield Gazette. Write a newspaper article about Nick's invention of the word "frindle." You must include information from the viewpoint (feelings) of Nick and Mrs. Granger. It is optional if you want to include another character's feelings about the invention in the story, too. Note: In the packet is a template for a newspaper article.
- Movie Director- Pretend Frindle is actually a movie. Create a movie poster for Frindle that is different from the book cover. Use a large sheet of paper or small poster-board and be sure to include color and captivating images to attract potential viewers.
- Inventor- Have you ever wanted to create an invention? Nick used his creativity to reinvent the pen, and Bud Lawrence used this opportunity to sell new products. Think of a unique invention that you could sell. Draw a design of your invention on plain white paper or a small piece of poster-board and write a description of the product, its purpose, and business ideas for the product. How much would you sell it for? Who would be interested in purchasing the product? Write the above on a sheet of loose-leaf paper and attach to the drawing.
- Book/Movie Reviewer- Write a review of the book for potential readers. Describe some of the highlights and downfalls of the novel. What should have been different in your opinion? Give the book a rating to accompany your review -for example 3 out of 5 stars, 7.5 out of 10, etc.
